

DODDINGHURST PARISH COUNCIL - WEBSITE PRIVACY POLICY

1. What it covers:

This privacy policy sets out how Doddinghurst Parish Council uses and protects any information that you give it when you use this website.

Links from within Doddinghurst Parish Council's website to external websites are not covered by this policy.

Doddinghurst Parish Council is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected and as a result any information you give it will only be used in accordance with this policy.

2. The website host organisation:

This website is hosted by EssexInfo.net for the benefit of the community of Essex using Cambridge Open Systems. Their privacy policy can be accessed from the bottom of the home page of this website - click on the "essexinfo.net" logo.

3. Information collection:

You can visit this site without telling the Parish Council who you are, or giving any personally identifiable information. The Parish Council doesn't use cookies for the general running of the site. EssexInfo.net does use cookies however, but these are not used to gather personal information and store no personal data. They cannot use the cookies to identify you or track your individual use of the site.

It is only when you e-mail Doddinghurst Parish Council that you can be identified. The Parish Council does not link IP addresses to any personal data so all visitors to this site can remain anonymous at all times.

4. Information use:

Where you voluntarily choose to give Doddinghurst Parish Council your personal details such as your name, address, telephone number and email address, the personal information you provide will only be used to provide you with the information you have requested and will not be retained for longer than is necessary to answer your enquiry.

For full details see Doddinghurst Council's Data Privacy Notice here.
