

Oxfam Live

Chelmsford

Thursday 28th May 7:30–8:30 pm

Central Baptist Church

Victoria Road South

Farhana Hafiz, an Oxfam staff member in Bangladesh, works on the front-line. Every day she works to end violence against women and to improve opportunities for poor people in her country.

Farhana sees at first hand the problems women and poor people face in the developing world, including the effects of climate change.

For more info please contact Malcolm Burgess on 01277 263770 or malcolm.burgess3@btopenworld.com Register online at www.oxfam.org.uk/oxfamlive

Be Humankind

Oxfam