Crime Prevention Advice

PURSE THEFT ALERT

Police have been made aware of three purse thefts in the late morning of 24/08/2015. Suspects have targeted Tecso's, The Grove and Morrisons on Braintree Road Witham. Police would like to urge our residents of Witham, of the importance of securing personal effects when shopping within the town centre. Plastic purse chains are available from Braintree Police station on a first come first serve basis.

Purse tips:

- Don't leave your purse on a shop counter while you purchase something.
- Don't leave your purse sitting in an open bag and don't leave the bag or purse unattended especially in the shopping trolley at the supermarket, even if it's just to get that tin of beans.
- Whilst carrying your bag keep it closed up and close to you preferably in front of you.
- Be aware of your surroundings especially in crowded places most thefts occur here.
- Avoid carrying too much money.
- Consider a purse alarm or purse chain, but remember it should snap under tension you don't want to be dragged down the road.
